WILMINGTON

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Wilmington, N. C., December 2.—The L'Arlesio German Club gave an exceptionally brilliant dance Tuesday night, which was followed by a delightful terrace reception at Lumina, Wrightsville Beach, the dancers going from here in specially chartered trolley cars.The L'Arlesio dance was of much brilliance and was gracefully led by Robert Calder.A brilliant church wedding of the week was that of Miss Annette Clay-pole Munda, daughter of W. G. Munda, and Walter Merritt Kenly, of Baltimore. The wedding was celebrated in St. James Episcopal Church, superbly decorated for the occasion, and the ceremony was performed by the rector, Rev. W. H. Milton, D. D. The attendants were Miss Bessie Duke Loder, maid of honor; W. M. Peck, best man; Misses Margaret Thorpe and Sue Lovering, flower girls; and J. T. Munda, Brown McKay, Robert Cantwell and Marion James, ushers. Following the service a reception was held at the home of the bride's father, on Market Street, and afterwards the happycouple left on a bridal tour North, returning from which they will make their home near Baltimore.One of the most delightful events of the week in a social way was a banquet given by the Four Square Club in honor of the Christian Endeavor Society, both organizations being of W. W. Koch, chairman of the Inter-talk, as did also M. O. Alexander, assistant secretary of the association.A delightful reception the past week was given by Misses Florence and Anna Grar, at the Grant home, on Ann Street. The guests during the reception numbered over 100, and they were served with delicious refreshment.The chief social event of "Thanksgiving" transpired on the links of the Country Club. There was all-day golf fever, with a sumptuous repast served in the handsome club building on the grounds.

RALEIGH

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Raleigh, N. C., December 2.—Especially brilliant was the reception held in Yarrowburgh Hotel Tuesday night complementary to the members of the North Carolina Literary and Historical Association, the host and hostess being Ex-Judge and Mrs. R. W. Winston. Notable in a long receiving line were United States Senator Henry Cabo, Lodge, of Massachusetts; Senator Lee S. Overman and daughter, Mrs. Gregory, of Salisbury, Dr. and Mrs. Archibald Henderson, of Chapel Hill; Dr. Edwin M. of Chapel Hill; Mr. Lindsay Patterson, of Winston-Salem; Dr. E. K. Graham, of Chapel Hill; Dr. C. Alphonso Smith, of the University of Virginia; Mrs. E. E. Mit-till, of Richmond; Bishop Joseph Blount Cheshire, and Mrs. Cheshire.
The reception was a superb affair, the first held in the remodeled Yarrowburgh.Miss Emmie Haywood was hostess Tuesday afternoon for a charming bridge party in honor of Miss Pearl Heck, whose marriage to Graham Clark is one of the social events for the coming week. Miss Mary Mar-tin, of Brooklyn, N. Y., also was an honored guest.Wednesday afternoon Miss Pearl Heck, of Brooklyn, N. Y., was with Miss McPherson for a very charming tea.
Francis Cox entertained quite a party of friends Tuesday evening at the Country Club from 9 to 11 o'clock.
There was dancing. An honor guest was Miss Haywood, of New Orleans.
Mrs. James O. Litchford gave a farewell tea for Mrs. D. O. Sunderland Monday afternoon. Mrs. W. E. Manor, of Harrisonburg, Va., was in the receiving line, and the event was one of special enjoyment for all.[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Asheville, N. C., December 2.—Edward J. Frost, a resident of this city for a number of years, who left Monday night for Los Angeles, where he will make his home in the future, was the guest of honor at a reception Friday afternoon, which was given by Mrs. Alice T. Connally, at her home at Fernhurst.The senior class of the St. Gene-vieve's Convent, at Victoria, gave a ball Friday evening in honor of thesophomore and junior classes of that institution.The home of Mrs. Carlton Millard was the scene of a bridge party Thursday afternoon, when a number of her Asheville friends were her guests.
At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Watkins, Miss Katherine Louise Watkins was married Wednesday afternoon to Robert Hance, of Philadelphia.
The first of the informal dances at the Country Club was given Saturday afternoon and was an emphatic success. The tea table was presided over by Mrs. John A. Perry.
Herbert Brown entertained a number of friends at a stag luncheon Friday afternoon in honor of Edward I.
Frost, who has removed from this city to Los Angeles.[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Richmond, where she will visit.

Misses Withers, of Roanoke; Virgie Fig-gatt, of Roanoke, and Julia Omohundro, of Hollins Institute, spent Thanksgiving with Miss Maude Johnson.Misses Mary and Ethel Lane returned Saturday after spending the day in Roanoke.Will Longley, of Richmond, is visiting his parents, Judge and Mrs. Longley.Mrs. William Ingles, Jr., and little son, Andrew, left Wednesday for Saltville, where they will visit Mrs. Ingles' mother, Mrs.
Harris.Miss Julia Ingles left Wednesday for her home at Ingles's Ferry.Rufus Burman, of Washington, and S. T.
Rhodes spent Tuesday with Mrs. Kearley.Miss May Cregar left Wednesday for Roanoke, where she will spend a few days with her sister, Mrs. Allen.[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Amherst, Va., December 2.—Thanksgiving Day was quietly observed at Amherst. The banks and school were closed, and at the post-office the usual holiday hours were observed. Many of the people of the town spent the day hunting, and the early morning trains also brought in a number of huntsmen from Lynchburg and other places.
Most of the schools of the county gave two days' holiday, as did the teachers at the State association in Norfolk. The young women of Sweet Briar College were given holiday Thursday.Mrs. Post Wheeler this week visited her father, Colonel Rives, at Mrs. Rose Watson's.Miss Roan D. Tucker, who is teaching in the Buena Vista public school this season, spent Thanksgiving with her home people.Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Page have gone to Norfolk for a stay of several weeks.Rev. Joseph T. Allen, of Orange, this week visited his brother, T. B. Allen, of Amherst.Dr. Harley, of New York, is boarding with Miss Mary C. Ellis, of Amherst, and will spend the winter with his daughter, Dr.
Mary Harley, of Sweet Briar.Misses Harriet Evans and Jane Cunningham, of Sweet Briar, spent Thanksgiving with their parents here.Mr. Conner, a Russian consul, was this week a visitor at Mrs. Rose Watson's.
